

Occupational Therapy Board of Australia

June 2015

Inactive programs of study - qualifications for registration

In accordance with Section 53(a) of the National Law individuals are qualified for general registration if they hold an approved qualification. In accordance with Section 283 of the National Law a number of programs transitioned on 1 July 2012 as approved programs. Many of those programs are no longer current but still qualify a practitioner for general registration, and are listed here as inactive programs.

Note: National Law refers to Health Practitioner Regulation National Law as in force in each State and Territory.
