

I fully support CPD for OT's but have some concerns for meeting the targets for OT's working in remote areas or smaller country sites, particularly sole practitioners. I have worked for many years in remote areas and have been able to keep up with CPD but its costly and occasionally difficult to secure. Can I raise this concern and wonder if a consultation should take place into the specific concerns of remote an country OT's.

Thanks

R. Floyd